This matter comes before the Court on the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge dated December 19, 2003. No objections to the Report and Recommendation have been filed with the Court. This case came on for hearing on December 5, 2003, on Plaintiffs' motion for entry of default judgment against the Defendants. Based on a de novo review of the evidence in this case, the Court adopts the findings and conclusions of the Magistrate Judge and it is hereby,

ORDERED that Plaintiffs' motion for default judgment is GRANTED; judgment is entered AGAINST Defendants; and Plaintiffs are, collectively, entitled to recover the following: $1,102.40 in unpaid contributions; $190.68 in accrued interest through December 5, 2003; $1,990.40 in liquidated damages; $625.11 in contractual late fees; and $5,910.89 in reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and it is further ORDERED that Defendants (1) file remittance reports and make payments due, within twenty (20) days of the date of this Order, for the period of July 2002 through October 2003, and for all other periods for which they are obligated until the expiration of the current collective bargaining agreement and extensions thereto; (2) permit Plaintiffs to conduct an audit of Defendants' wage, payroll and personnel records, within twenty (20) days of the date of this Order; (3) shall pay all additional unpaid contributions, all interest, and liquidated damages on unpaid contributions, and all costs of the audit, should the audit reveal unreported hours and that additional contributions are due; and (4) are restrained and enjoined, along with their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting on their behalf or in conjunction with them, from refusing to file complete, proper, and timely remittance reports with accompanying contributions for all periods for which Defendants are obligated to do so under current and future collective bargaining agreements.

If further action is required to enforce and collect this judgment, Plaintiffs may apply to this Court or to the court in which enforcement is sought for further reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in addition to those set out in this Order.
